

Contents

Foreword	vi
Acknowledgements	viii
PART I REGULATION IN THE COMMON LAW WORLD
1. Introduction	3
2. Legal services regulation in the common law world	18
3. Four policy choices for legal services regulation	45
4. Tradition and reform in legal services regulation	75
PART II DOES PROFESSIONALIST-INDEPENDENT REGULATION HAVE A FUTURE?
5. Regulatory failure	93
6. Access to justice	133
PART III THE CASE FOR PROFESSIONALIST-INDEPENDENT REGULATION
7. Professionalism	185
8. Independence	218
PART IV A PATH FORWARD
9. Client-centricity in legal services regulation	243
10. Professionalism and independence renewed	287
Index	309