CONTENTS

Foreword vii
Acknowledgements ix
List of Contributors xiii

Introduction 1
Virginia Mantouvalou

1. Work, its Moral Meaning or Import 11
David Wiggins

2. Is there a Human Right to Work? 17
Hugh Collins

3. The Right to Non-Exploitative Work 39
Virginia Mantouvalou

4. Universalising the Right to Work of Persons with Disabilities: An Equality and Dignity Based Approach 61
Eina Albin

5. Aristotle, Arendt and the Gentleman: How the Conception of Remuneration Figures in our Understanding of a Right to Work and Be Paid 87
JE Penner

6. The Right to Work in International Human Rights Law 99
Colm O’Cinneide

7. The Right to (Decent) Work in a European Comparative Perspective 123
Mark Freedland and Nicola Kountouris

8. Giving Up on the Human Right to Work 137
James W Nickel

Alan L Bogg

10. The Right to Work and the Duty to Work 177
Amir Paz-Fuchs
Contents

   Sophie Robin-Olivier 195

12. The Development of Right to Work Theories of Labour Law in Japan: A Comparative Perspective
   Kenji Arita 209

13. Progress Towards the Right to Work in the United Kingdom
   Hugh Collins 227

   Joanna Howe 255

15. A Right to Work in the United States: Historical Antecedents and Contemporary Possibilities
   Katherine VW Stone 275

16. Working Out the Right to Work in a Global Labour Market
   Guy Mundlak 291

17. The Right to Work and Labour Market Flexibility: Labour Market Governance Norms in the International Order
   Kerry Rittich 315

Index 337