

CONTENTS

Words from the Director Néstor E. Stancanelli	13
Words from the Chancellor and President of the University of Buenos Aires Rubén Hallu	17
Words from the Vice-Chancellor and President of the Australian National University Ian Chubb	21
Argentina and Australia: Comparative development at the ends of the Earth Preface by Aldo Ferrer	25

Part 1: Papers

Introduction

Australia – Argentina: Convergences and divergences. (Long-term trend and recent evolution) Néstor E. Stancanelli	33
--	----

Chapter 1: Historical evolution and comparative analysis

Experiences and thoughts on comparative analysis Ezequiel Gallo	75
Where were we? Some observations about comparing Australia and Argentina, then and now Tim Duncan	79
Two distant cousins: An essay on the comparative economic history of Argentina and Australia (Abridged version) Pablo Gerchunoff and Pablo Fajgelbaum	89
The Australian vision John Gage	117

Chapter 2: Political and institutional evolution

Globalization, development and national density Aldo Ferrer	123
A divergent view of convergence: A look at the past James R. Levy	131
Australia. An analysis of the political and institutional system Marian Simms	137

Chapter 3: The economy

The recent crisis—and recovery—of the Argentine economy:

Some elements and background

Arturo O'Connell _____ 157

Industrial development in Argentina

Bernardo Kosacoff _____ 183

Distance and development?

Glenn Withers _____ 211

Comparative international integration:

Argentina and Australia over the last three decades

Daniel Berrettoni _____ 229

The unequal economic development of the Argentine and Australian economies

Roberto Darío Pons _____ 247

MERCOSUR and the international integration of Argentina

Mario Rapoport _____ 269

Chapter 4: The society

The socio-economic conditions in Argentina

Leonardo Gasparini and Martín Cicowiez _____ 287

The dark corner in a bright economy: The lack of jobs for unskilled men

R. G. Gregory _____ 335

A comparison of state investment in human capital:

Australia and Argentina 1890–1960

Peter Ross and James Levy _____ 353

Chapter 5: Education and culture

Milestones in Australian higher education financing

Michael Gallagher _____ 373

Australian education and sciences

Malcolm Gillies _____ 399

Education in Argentina: Past, present and future tendencies

Silvina Gvirtz _____ 411

Australian culture

Malcolm Gillies _____ 435

The Argentine culture since the 1970s

Lucía Pacenza _____ 447

Essence and attraction of museums

Alberto G. Bellucci _____ 457

Part 2: Transcripts

Welcome words by:

Hernán Piotti López (University of Buenos Aires)	471
Luis González Estévez (Industrial Union of Argentina)	473
Malcolm Gillies (Australian National University)	474
Peter Hussin (Australian Ambassador to Argentina)	476
Néstor E. Stancanelli (Centre for International Economy)	480

Introduction	481
First session: Political and institutional evolution	507
Second session: The economy (first part)	519
Third session: The economy (second part)	535
Fourth session: Education and sciences	553
Fifth session: Culture	575
Matching experiences	589

Part 3: Miscellaneous

Summary of the seminar
Néstor E. Stancanelli	615
Curriculum vitae of the participants	637
In memory of John Gage (1941–2007)	649